

Monday 3rd July

Time	Session	Speakers
09:00-10:00	Opening keynote - One step up: using digital humanities to bring community generated digital content into a national collection	Lorna Hughes
10:00-10:30	Refreshment break
10:30-12:00	What is TEI and why you might want to use it The principles of XML, markup and TEI and how they relate to research questions.	Yasmin Faghihi Matthew Holford Huw Jones
12:00-13:30	Lunch
13:30-15:30	Creating and editing TEI documents The basics of TEI files using the Oxygen XML editor. Transforming TEI for research and publication.	Yasmin Faghihi Matthew Holford Huw Jones
15:30-16:00	Refreshment break
16:00-17:00	Beyond the basics Working with the TEI header and the body

Tuesday 4th July

Time	Session	Speakers
09:00-10:30	TEI for texts (1) Markup for text structure, editing, transcription, names, dates.	Yasmin Faghihi Matthew Holford Huw Jones
10:30-11:00	Refreshment break
11:00-13:00	TEI for texts (2)	Yasmin Faghihi Matthew Holford Huw Jones

13:00-14:30	Lunch
14:30-15:30	The Beckett Project A brief introduction to textual criticism and digital scholarly editing.	Dirk Van Hulle
15:30-16:00	Refreshment break
16:00-17:00	Additional session - Speed Networking (O'reilly Theatre) DHOxSS is a great place to meet other digital humanists, but sometimes it can be a bit daunting to just strike up a conversation. In this session we invite you to meet each other rapidly. You'll get just 2 minutes to meet another digital humanist before the bell goes and you meet another. This will be an enjoyable and efficient way to find others with similar interests, and to find out who to have longer conversations with throughout the week.

Wednesday 5th July

Time	Session	Speakers
09:00-10:30	Describing and transcribing manuscripts using TEI Using the msDesc module to encode manuscript descriptions Creating TEI descriptions and transcription of manuscript material	Yasmin Faghihi Matthew Holford Huw Jones
10:30-11:00	Refreshment break
11:00-13:00	Exercise: Encoding manuscripts Practical exercises based on real life manuscripts	Yasmin Faghihi Matthew Holford Huw Jones
13:00-14:30	Lunch
14:30-15:30	Analysing TEI data for critical purposes. TEI data and digital humanities methodologies.	Christopher Ohge
15:30-16:00	Refreshment break

16:00-17:00	Additional lecture - Enhancing Collections Online	Sarah Joomun Caroline Moreau Helen Adams
-------------	--	--

Thursday 6th July

Time	Session	Speakers
09:00-10:30	Encoding primary sources - correspondence Using TEI to encode correspondence	Elizabeth Smith
10:30-11:00	Refreshment break
11:00-13:00	Encoding correspondence Practical examples and exercises of encoding letters with the correspDesc module	Elizabeth Smith
13:00-14:30	Lunch
14:30-15:30	Real-world projects using TEI: the Darwin correspondence project	Elizabeth Smith
15:30-16:00	Refreshment break
16:00-17:00	Additional lecture - Shaping the UK-Ireland Digital Humanities Association (O'Reilly Theatre)	Orla Murphy Michael Donnay Kristen Schuster Paul Gooding Arianna Ciula

Friday 7th July

Time	Session	Speakers
09:00-10:30	Using Xpath to query TEI A practical approach to the Xpath query language	Mike Hawkins
10:30-11:00	Refreshment break

11:00-13:00	Customising the TEI with schemas Using schemas to help with the creation and editing of TEI	Mike Hawkins
13:00-14:30	Lunch
14:30-15:30	The Newton Project Real-world projects using TEI: the Newton project	Mike Hawkins
15:30-16:00	Refreshment break
16:00-17:00	Closing Keynote - Critical Technology Discourse –  creating a space for a public reckoning with technology	Oonagh Murphy